Your guide to Utah's 2011 antlerless hunts

Have you been wondering where to find the 2011 Utah Antlerless guidebook? You've come to the right place! The Division did not print a traditional antlerless guidebook this year. Instead, we've moved to an online format that provides immediate access to the information hunters want to see.

You can apply online for an antlerless permit from June 1–21, 2011. The pages linked below will provide all of the information and tools you need in order to apply.

- 2011 antlerless hunt highlights
- Permit fees and important dates
- Basic requirements for the 2011 antlerless hunt
- How to obtain an antlerless permit for the 2011 season
- Other types of antlerless hunts and permits (CWMU, depredation, elk control and reward)
- Hunt tables for deer, elk, moose and pronghorn
- Maps and boundaries for hunting areas
- Harvest reporting

The field regulations for all big game hunts (both antlered and antlerless) are in the new 2011 Utah Big Game Field Regulations guidebook, which is now available online. A printed copy of the field regulations book will be available from Division offices and license agents in early June.

You may also download a printer-friendly PDF of the information and tables included in these 2011 antlerless Web pages.

Who makes the rules?

The Utah Wildlife Board passes the rules and laws summarized in this guidebook.

There are seven board members, and each serves a six-year term. Appointed by the governor, board members are not Division employees.

The Division's director serves as the board's executive secretary but does not have a vote on wildlife policies.

Before board members make changes to wildlife rules, they listen to recommendations from Division biologists. They also receive input from the public and various interest groups via the regional advisory council (RAC) process.

If you have feedback or suggestions for board members, visit the Utah Wildlife Board members page.

2011 antlerless hunt highlights

What's new this year?

Field regulations in separate guidebook

All big game field regulations — for both antlered and antlerless animals — are in the 2011 Utah Big Game Field Regulations guidebook. Printed copies will be available from license agents and Division offices in early June.

New elk-control areas

This year, you can use an elk-control permit in two new areas: East Canyon and Chalk Creek. Learn more about elk-control permits.

Cow moose permits available only on CWMUs

Because Utah's moose populations are relatively stable, there are only a few cow moose permits available to the public this year. These permits are available only on CWMUs.

Boundary changes

Hunt boundaries change from year to year. If you're applying to hunt in a particular area, visit the online map and boundary.

Apply online for depredation hunts

When big game animals cause damage to agricultural crops, the Division may hold hunts that are not currently listed. These hunts are called depredation hunts. They may occur on short notice, involve small areas and are often limited to only a few hunters. To apply for the depredation hunter pool, complete and submit an online application.

Take a closer look at the rules

These antlerless pages summarize some of Utah's big game hunting laws and rules.

Under many of the headings on these pages, you'll see code references — such as Utah Code § 23-20-25 and Utah Administrative Rule R657-5-24 — that are linked to the detailed statute or rule that underpins the summary.

If you have questions about a particular subject, take a minute to click the links and read the rules. You are also welcome to call or visit the nearest Division office.

Don't lose your hunting and fishing privileges

If you commit a wildlife violation, you could lose the privilege of hunting and fishing in Utah. The Utah Division of Wildlife Resources can suspend the license of anyone who knowingly, intentionally or recklessly violates wildlife laws. Your license can be suspended for a wildlife violation if:

- You are convicted.
- You plead guilty or no contest.
- You enter a plea in abeyance.

You will be notified of any action against your privilege after criminal proceedings conclude. And remember, if your license is suspended in Utah, you may not be permitted to hunt or fish in most other states. (Visit ianrc.org to see a map of participating states.)

Other things to keep in mind

Hunting license required

Before you can apply for a 2011 antlerless permit, bonus point or preference point, you must have a valid Utah hunting or combination license. You can purchase a license today or when you apply for an antlerless permit.

Poaching-reported reward permits

Utah Admin. Rule R657-5-23

It pays to report poachers in Utah.

If you provide information that leads to the successful prosecution of another person for the wanton destruction (poaching) of any big game species—on any once-in-a-lifetime or limited-entry hunt area in the state—you may receive a permit to hunt the same species on the same area where the violation occurred.

Apply for permits online or by phone

If you plan to hunt antlerless big game in Utah this year, you must apply for a permit online or by phone no later than June 21, 2011. There's an 11 p.m. deadline for online applications and a 6 p.m. deadline for phone applications. Apply online, beginning June 1, or call any Division office.

Opportunity for youth

Twenty percent of the permits for antlerless deer and elk and doe pronghorn have been reserved for hunters 18 or under.

Antlerless elk-control permits

Did you obtain a buck, bull or once-in-a-lifetime permit? If so, you may be eligible to purchase an antlerless elk-control permit.

Harvest reporting and your chance to win prizes

The Division encourages all hunters to voluntarily report the results of their antlerless hunts, even if they don't harvest an animal. If you participate, you'll automatically be entered into a prize drawing! Learn more about this opportunity.

Multiple elk permits

You may obtain two elk permits—provided one or both of the permits are antlerless—but you can only apply for or obtain one antlerless elk permit in the drawing. Learn more about this opportunity.

Corrections

If errors are found in this online antlerless application information, the Division will correct them immediately.

Protection from discrimination

The Division receives federal financial assistance from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the U.S. Department of the Interior and its bureaus prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex. If you believe that you have been discriminated against in any program, activity or facility, or if you desire further information, please write to:

Private lands

The Division cannot guarantee access to any private land. If you plan to hunt—or engage in any other wildlife-related activities—on private lands, you must obtain WRITTEN permission from the landowner or the landowner’s authorized representative.

Division funding

The Division is mostly funded by the sale of hunting and fishing licenses and through federal aid made possible by an excise tax on the sale of firearms and other hunting- and fishing-related equipment.

Hunters with disabilities

Utah Admin. Rule R657-12

Utah provides special hunting accommodations for people with disabilities. These accommodations include the opportunity to hunt with a companion, use a crossbow, hunt from a vehicle, use a draw lock and use a scope on archery equipment or a muzzleloader.

Hunters with disabilities may also apply for an extension to their season if they have a 2011 big game hunting permit in their possession and they meet certain criteria.

Learn more about hunting accommodations for people with disabilities. You can also see the administrative rule or call any Division office.

Basic requirements for the 2011 antlerless hunt

Are you planning to hunt antlerless big game in Utah this year? Before you apply for a permit, make sure you meet Utah's age, residency, hunter education and license requirements.

Are you old enough?

Utah Code § 23-19-22

Before you can buy a hunting license and apply for an antlerless permit, you must meet the following requirements:

- Successfully complete the state's Hunter Education course.
- Be at least 12 years old by your hunt date.

Note: If you're 11 years old—but you'll be 12 by Dec. 31, 2011—you may apply for and obtain an antlerless deer, antlerless elk, antlerless moose or doe pronghorn permit. However, you cannot hunt until the day you turn 12. Be sure to check hunt dates before applying. All sales are final.

All hunters under the age of 16 must be accompanied in the field by a parent, legal guardian or responsible person 21 years of age or older.

Are you a resident or a nonresident?

Utah Code § 23-13-2(37)

Before you apply for a big game hunt, it's important to know whether you are a legal resident of the state of Utah.

You are a resident if you have had a fixed permanent home and principal establishment in Utah for six consecutive months immediately preceding the purchase of a license or permit, and you do not claim residency for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.

If you purchase a resident license for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country, then your Utah resident license or permit is invalid.

What if I leave Utah temporarily?

You retain your Utah residency if you leave Utah to serve in the armed forces of the United States—or for religious or educational purposes — and you do not claim residency for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.

What if I serve in the armed forces?

Members of the armed forces of the United States and their dependents are residents as of the date the member reports for duty under assigned orders in Utah, if:

- the member is not on temporary duty in Utah and does not claim residency for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.
- the member presents a copy of his or her assignment orders to a Division office to verify the member's qualification as a resident.

What if I'm a student?

A nonresident attending an institution of higher learning in Utah as a full-time student may qualify as a resident if the student has been present in Utah for 60 consecutive days immediately preceding the purchase of the license or permit and does not claim residency for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.

What if I own property in Utah?

You do not qualify as a resident if you are an absentee landowner paying property tax on land in Utah.

Have you passed hunter education?

Utah Code § 23-19-11 & Utah Admin. Rule R657-23

If you were born after Dec. 31, 1965, you must provide proof that you've passed a hunter education course approved by the Division before you can apply for or obtain a hunting license or an antlerless permit.

Proof of hunter education

You can prove that you've completed hunter education by obtaining a hunter education course Certificate of Completion (this certificate is called a "blue card" in Utah) or by using a hunting license from a previous year with your hunter education number noted on the license.

How to take hunter education

If you were born after 1965, you must take and successfully complete the state's hunter education course. It's an easy process:

1. Obtain a hunter education registration certificate. Each certificate costs only $10, and you can obtain it online, at any Division office or from a license agent.
2. Register for a class with your local hunter education instructor.
3. Take your registration certificate to your instructor on the first night of class.
4. Successfully complete the course—your instructor will then validate your certificate. The validated certificate serves as your hunting license.

Note: Both the registration certificate and the corresponding hunting license are valid for 365 days from the date of purchase. The license enables you to apply for or obtain permits in the Division's hunt drawings. In order to maximize your hunting opportunities, you should register for and complete the hunter education course as soon as possible after purchasing your registration certificate.

After completing the course, you will receive your official hunter education card (commonly known as the “blue card”) by mail. It will be sent to the address listed on your registration certificate. This card certifies that you passed hunter education.

You should also keep the following in mind:

- Hunters under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult while hunting.
- Regardless of when a student graduates, all hunting regulations (such as season dates and bag limits) will apply.
- Students who are planning to hunt out of state should allow enough time for their hunter education card to arrive in the mail.

You can see a list of hunter education courses online. You can also contact your local Division office or call 801-538-4727.

New to Utah?

If you become a Utah resident, and you've completed a hunter education course in another state, province or country, you must obtain a blue card before you can apply for or buy a resident hunting license or a resident antlerless permit. You can obtain a Utah blue card at any Division office by providing proof that you've completed a hunter education course approved by the Division. The card costs $10.

Do you have a license?

Utah Code §§§ 23-19-1, 23-19-22 and 23-20-3

You must have a current Utah hunting or combination (hunting and fishing) license to apply for any antlerless permits, bonus points or preference points. You will have the opportunity to purchase a license while applying for permits or points. Licenses are also available online and from license agents and Division offices.

Be sure to take a quick look at the date on your license before you apply for any permits or points. As long as your license is valid on the date you submit your application, you don't have to purchase a new license for the actual hunt.

For example, assume that your license expires on June 20, 2011. If you apply before that date, you do not have to purchase a new license for your hunt in the fall. All hunting and combination licenses are valid for 365 days from the date of purchase.

Carry your permit

If you are successful in obtaining an antlerless permit, you must have it on your person while hunting. You cannot alter your license or permit, nor can you sell, transfer or loan either of them to another person.

How to obtain a 2011 antlerless permit

Your first, and possibly only, chance to obtain a Utah antlerless permit is through the state's antlerless drawing. To apply for the drawing, you'll need to:

- 1 Know what types of antlerless permits are available
- 2 Research your hunts using the online hunt tables, maps and boundaries
- 3 Know when, where and how to apply for a permit
- 4 Know how bonus points and preference points work
- 5 Understand the drawing process, waiting periods and refunds

Types of antlerless permits

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-19

You can apply for all of the following antlerless permits in the 2011 drawing:

- One antlerless deer permit (except in areas where two-doe permits are available)
- One antlerless elk permit
- One antlerless moose permit
- One doe pronghorn permit (except in areas where two-doe permits are available)

Note: If you drew a pronghorn permit in the 2011 big game drawing, you may not apply for a doe pronghorn permit or preference point. Likewise, if you drew a moose permit in the 2011 big game drawing, you may not apply for an antlerless moose permit or bonus point.

If you don't draw an antlerless permit in 2011, you might still be able to participate in a depredation hunt or obtain a CWMU, elk-control or poaching-reported reward permit.

Multiple elk permits

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-19, 23-19-22, R657-5-34

You may obtain a maximum of two elk permits each year—provided one or both of the permits are antlerless—but you can only apply for or obtain one antlerless elk permit in the drawing. You may obtain two elk permits in any one of the following combinations:

- One bull elk permit and one antlerless permit
- One bull elk permit and one antlerless elk-control permit (learn more about elk-control permits)
- Two antlerless permits
- One hunter's choice permit and one antlerless permit

For the purposes of obtaining two elk permits, a hunter's choice elk permit is considered a bull elk permit. An antlerless elk-control permit is considered an antlerless permit. Eligible hunters may purchase additional antlerless elk permits after the drawing, beginning July 21, 2011. The permits will be available on a first-come, first-served basis at wildlife.utah.gov and from license agents and Division offices.

Elk-control permits available

Utah Admin. Rule R657-5-34

During the 2011 season, the Division wants hunters to harvest as many antlerless elk as possible from six of Utah's hunting units:

- Chalk Creek
- East Canyon
- Henry Mountains
- Nine Mile, Range Creek
- San Juan, East of US-191
- San Rafael, North

If you obtained a permit (including general season) to harvest a buck, bull or once-in-a-lifetime species on any of the above units (not including CWMUs), you have the option of purchasing an antlerless elk-control permit.

The elk-control permit allows you to harvest an antlerless elk in the same unit where you'll already be hunting an antlered big game animal. You may hunt the antlerless elk only during the season dates—and with the same weapon—listed on your buck, bull or once-in-a-lifetime permit.

To obtain an antlerless elk-control permit, please visit a license agent or any Division office beginning July 27, 2011.

When, where and how to apply

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-12, R657-62-19 and R657-42

June 1: Apply online for permits, bonus points and preference points

Both residents and nonresidents can apply online for permits, bonus points and preference points. You can also apply by calling any Division office.

To apply for a resident permit, you must be a resident on the date the permit is purchased. July 14, 2011 is considered the purchase date of the permit and the date by which you must establish residency in the state of Utah. (Please see the residency definition to learn whether you qualify as a resident.)

When you submit your application, you'll be charged a nonrefundable $10 application fee for each species, bonus point or preference point you apply for.

Application fees, license fees and any donations you've authorized will be charged to your credit or debit card when you apply. Permit fees will be charged after the drawing, if you are successful.

Applying as a group

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-7

Instead of applying as an individual hunter, you and your friends and family can apply together as a group. Here's what you need to know:

1. Everyone in the group must apply during the same online session—you cannot add group members at a later date.
2. Both residents and nonresidents can apply together. (However, if you're a Utah resident and you decide to apply with a nonresident, make sure nonresident permits are available for each hunt your group is applying for.) If permits are not available for everyone in your group, the entire group will not be allowed to draw for that hunt unit.
3. Up to four hunters can apply together for antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permits. Group applications are not accepted for antlerless moose hunts.
4. Please remember that if you're a youth, and you want to be included among those who draw for the antlerless permits reserved for youth, you must apply as an individual hunter. Do NOT apply as part of a group.
5. When you apply, all fees for all applicants in your group must be charged to one credit or debit card.

If your group is successful in the drawing, all of the applicants in your group who have valid applications will receive a permit.

You can use American Express, Discover, MasterCard and VISA credit or debit cards as payment, and they must be valid through August 2011. You can also use a pre-paid credit card. If you have questions about using a pre-paid credit card, check with your financial institution for more information. You will not be charged a permit fee unless you draw a permit.

June 21: Deadline for permit applications, bonus points and preference points

Applications for antlerless hunting permits, bonus points and preference points must be submitted through wildlife.utah.gov no later than 11 p.m. on June 21, 2011.

Please remember that you must have a hunting license or a combination license to apply for permits and points. If you don't already have one of these licenses, you can buy one online when you apply.

If you need help with your online application, please call any Division office before 6 p.m. on June 21, 2011. A Division employee will be available to help you!

June 21: Deadline to withdraw and resubmit your application

Did you make a mistake in your online permit application? Simply withdraw your original online application and submit a new, correct application before 11 p.m. on June 21, 2011.

You must have your confirmation number, your customer ID and your date of birth in order to withdraw your application. For each new application you submit, you will be charged a $10 application fee.

Antlerless harvest reporting

Did you obtain an antlerless permit this year? If so, you'll have the chance to participate in a voluntary harvest-reporting program after you complete your hunt.

This program will help the Division obtain more detailed information about the antlerless game harvested in 2011. It also gives you the chance to win a prize, just for reporting some basic information about your antlerless hunt.

After you finish your hunt (whether or not you harvest an animal), visit wildlife.utah.gov/harvestreporting and click the appropriate button at the top of the page. Then, you can log in and complete your antlerless online harvest report.

If you prefer to complete your harvest report over the phone, call 1-800-221-0659 at any time of day.

As soon as you submit your report—online or by phone—you will be automatically entered into a prize drawing. You don't have to fill out a separate entry form.

To be entered into the prize drawing, you must submit your report by Feb. 29, 2012.

Although this program isn't mandatory, we strongly encourage you to participate. Your efforts will help us obtain the information we need to better manage Utah's big game herds.

If you need help with your online application, please call any Division office before 6 p.m. on June 21, 2011.

June 21: Deadline to withdraw your application

If you decide not to hunt, you can withdraw your online permit application until 11 p.m. on June 21, 2011.

Please remember that the fees you submitted with your application are not refundable.

July 14: Drawing results available

You'll be notified of the drawing results by e-mail. Beginning July 14, you can also see your drawing results online or call 1-800-221-0659 to obtain them.

Youth antlerless drawing process

Utah Code § 23-19-22 and Utah Admin. Rules R657-62-19 & R657-5-4

Twenty percent of the antlerless deer, antlerless elk and doe pronghorn permits are reserved for hunters who will be 18 years of age or younger on Aug. 20, 2011.

If you'll be 18 years of age or younger on Aug. 20, you can participate in the youth drawing by submitting an application as an individual hunter. You won't be included in the youth drawing if you apply as a member of a group.

If you draw a permit, you'll receive your permit in the mail in August.

Please be aware that if you receive your permit, and then the credit card you used for payment is refused, your permit becomes invalid and you may not participate in the antlerless hunt. If this happens, please call 1-800-221-0659 to resolve the problem.

July 21: Remaining antlerless permits available

Any antlerless permits remaining after the drawing may be obtained online beginning at 7 a.m. on July 21, 2011. You may also visit license agents and Division offices to purchase one of these permits.

Note: The hours when license agents are open for business vary; you should contact the agent you plan to visit before July 21 to learn when they're open for business.

Remaining permits are available on a first-come, first-served basis, and you must have a valid hunting or combination license. You may obtain a maximum of two elk permits.

Bonus points and preference points

Bonus points

Utah Admin Rule R657-62-8

In the antlerless drawing, bonus points apply to antlerless moose only. You receive a bonus point for each unsuccessful application to hunt antlerless moose.

You may apply for a bonus point only by selecting the appropriate hunt choice code (ANM) on the application and paying the $10 application fee.

You must have a current Utah hunting or combination license in order to apply for an antlerless moose bonus point.

If you are eligible for an antlerless moose permit, you are eligible to apply for an antlerless moose bonus point.

If you apply for both an antlerless moose permit and a bonus point, your application will be rejected.

How your bonus points work in the drawing

Fifty percent (rounded down) of the permits for each hunt unit number are reserved for applicants with the most bonus points.

You receive one random drawing number for your antlerless moose application and one for every bonus point you have for antlerless moose. Your lowest random number is used in the drawing.

In the drawing for antlerless moose, applications are sorted into groups by the number of bonus points, from highest to lowest. There's a group for hunters with three bonus points, one for hunters with two bonus points and so forth. Applications are sorted from lowest to highest draw number, and permits are awarded in order.

You may surrender an antlerless moose permit before the season opening date to waive the waiting period and reinstate your bonus points, including a bonus point for the current year (just as if a permit had not been drawn).

You cannot apply for a hunt or receive a bonus point if either of the following conditions apply:

- You are currently under wildlife license suspension for big game hunting.
- You are currently under a waiting period for the species you want to hunt.

The Division began issuing bonus points for antlerless moose in 2006.

Preference points

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-9

Preference points are used to ensure that applicants who are unsuccessful, or who apply for a preference point in the drawing for antlerless deer, antlerless elk and doe pronghorn, will have first preference in the next year's drawing for the respective permits.

If you do not want to hunt antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn in the current year, you may apply for a preference point by inserting the appropriate hunt choice code on the application. You will be charged a $10 application fee for every preference point you apply for (limit one per species).

The application period is June 1–21, 2011. You must have a current Utah hunting or combination license in order to apply for preference points.

If you are eligible for an antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permit, you are eligible to apply for a preference point for that hunt.

You cannot apply for both a permit and a preference point for the same species. A preference point will not be issued if you are successful in drawing for the respective permit.

You will not forfeit your preference points if you obtain a permit that remains available after the drawing.

The Division began issuing preference points for antlerless deer, antlerless elk and doe pronghorn in 2006.

How your preference points work in the drawing

In the drawing, the antlerless deer, antlerless elk and doe pronghorn applications are sorted into groups by the number of preference points, from highest to lowest. There's a group for hunters with four preference points, one for hunters with three preference points and so forth. Within each group of preference points, the applications are then sorted from lowest to highest draw numbers. Permits are awarded in order, based on the hunt choice selected.

Preference points are averaged and rounded down when two or more applicants apply as a group. For example, if hunter A with three preference points and hunter B with zero preference points apply as a group, the preference points are averaged (1.5) and rounded down to one. Hunters with one preference point will be considered only after all groups or individuals with two or more preference points and before all groups or individuals with zero preference points.

In a second example, if hunter A with one preference point and hunter B with zero preference points apply as a group, the preference points are averaged (0.5) and rounded down to zero. This group with zero preference points will be considered after all groups or individuals with one or more preference points have been considered.

You may surrender your antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permit before the season opening date to reinstate your preference points, including a preference point for the current year (just as if a permit had not been drawn).

You cannot apply for an antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permit or a preference point if you are currently under wildlife license suspension for big game hunting.

Antlerless drawing process

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-19

Antlerless permits are drawn in the following order:

1. Antlerless moose
2. Youth elk
3. Antlerless elk
4. Youth deer
5. Antlerless deer

Waiting periods

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-19

Waiting periods keep successful applicants out of the drawing for a few years. This gives unsuccessful applicants a better chance at drawing a permit in the future. The antlerless moose hunt is the only antlerless hunt with a waiting period.

Antlerless moose

Utah Admin Rule R657-62-19

The waiting period for antlerless moose is five years. However, if you buy an antlerless moose CWMU permit from a private landowner, the waiting period does not apply.

Permits obtained after the drawing

Utah Admin Rule R657-62-13

If you're under a waiting period for a certain species, you can still obtain any permit that remains for that species after the drawing, but your waiting period will start over.

For example, if you have two years left on your antlerless moose waiting period, and you buy an antlerless moose permit that remains available after the drawing, you'll begin a new five-year waiting period. The new waiting period will prevent you from applying for an antlerless moose permit for the next five years.

Permit refunds

Utah Code §23-19-38 and Utah Admin. Rule R657-42

Some hunters successfully obtain permits and then realize—for one reason or another—that they won't be able to use those permits. In most cases, the Division cannot refund the cost of the permit, but there are some exceptions. The Division may provide a refund under the following circumstances:

- The Division or the Utah Wildlife Board cancels the hunt for which you obtained the permit.
- The Division determines that it collected a fee from you by mistake. If you believe the Division collected a fee from you by mistake, please contact the agency. The Division has a committee that reviews these mistakes.
- You obtain a limited-entry or once-in-a-lifetime permit (such as antlerless moose) and then surrender it to the Division no less than 30 days before the season-opening date. Under these circumstances, you will receive a refund of the permit fee—minus a $25 refund fee—and your bonus points will be reinstated.
- You become ill or suffer an injury that prevents you from participating in the hunt you obtained a permit for. To receive a refund, you must provide verification from a physician of your illness or injury. You must also surrender the permit before the season the permit was issued for ends. You cannot receive a refund if you hunted.
- If you're a member of the United States Armed Forces, or a public health or public safety organization, you might be eligible for a refund if you're mobilized or deployed in the interest of national defense or emergency, and your mobilization or deployment prevents you from participating in the hunting activity you bought the license or permit for.

A refund may also be granted if the permit recipient dies before they can participate in the hunt.

Antlerless deer

An "antlerless deer" is a deer without antlers or with antlers five inches or shorter. To hunt antlerless deer, you must possess an antlerless deer permit. This permit allows you to use a legal weapon to take one antlerless deer—per antlerless deer tag—in the area and season specified on your permit.

Antlerless elk

An "antlerless elk" is an elk without antlers or with antlers five inches or shorter. To hunt antlerless elk, you must possess an antlerless elk permit. This permit allows you to use a legal weapon to take one antlerless elk in the area and season specified on your permit.

You may not hunt on a Cooperative Wildlife Management Unit (CWMU) unless you obtain an antlerless elk permit for that CWMU. You may obtain two elk permits each year. At least one of them must be an antlerless elk permit.

If you plan to obtain two elk permits, please note that a hunter's choice elk permit is considered a bull elk permit. You may apply for only one antlerless elk permit in the antlerless drawing. If you do not obtain an antlerless elk permit in the drawing, you may be eligible to purchase up to two remaining antlerless elk permits.

Doe pronghorn

A "doe pronghorn" is a pronghorn without horns or with horns five inches or shorter. To hunt a doe pronghorn, you must possess a doe pronghorn permit. This permit allows you to use a legal weapon to take one doe pronghorn in the area and season specified on your permit.

If you already have a 2011 pronghorn permit, you may not apply for or obtain a doe pronghorn permit or preference point. You may not hunt on a Cooperative Wildlife Management Unit (CWMU) unless you obtain a doe pronghorn permit for that CWMU.

Note: You may only obtain one pronghorn permit—of any kind—during the 2011 season.
